

HANS COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, KOTPUTLI

LIBRARY:-

The college boasts a spacious and well-organized library, which serves as a vital component in fostering academic excellence and intellectual growth among its learners. Designed to provide a comfortable, and resource-rich environment, the library supports students in their pursuit of knowledge, research, and self-study.

It is well equipped with a vast and diverse collection of approximately 13,185 books, covering a wide range of subjects and disciplines. This collection includes prescribed textbooks, reference books, supplementary reading materials, and resources that cater to both academic and competitive needs. The library ensures that students and faculty members have easy access to updated and relevant information.

In addition to books, the library subscribes to newspapers in multiple languages, enabling students to stay informed about current affairs at local, national, and global levels. It also maintains an impressive collection of national and international journals, magazines, and periodicals, which are essential for keeping up with the latest developments in various fields of study.
