RAM SINGH YADAV
CHAIRMAN

Mr. Ram Singh Yadav is chairman & Founder of shri Krishan law college. The mission of shri Krishan law college is to create lawyers and legal professionals, who are well versed in national and trans-national legal systems. The emerging technologies have changed the laws governing communication and intellectual property rights.

Modern lawyers are expected to remain in the know-how of these changes and acquire proficiency in these practices. It is our commitment to producing legal eagles who would add new dimensions to the legal profession and contribute significantly towards social equity and make legal practice value based.

Our objective is to develop vision to adopt law as flexible instrument of social order, social change, social solidarity, communal harmony and national integration to serve the society more particularly its downtrodden and weaker sections.

SHRI KRISHAN LAW COLLEGE is committed to contributing to the shape of the future through leadership & innovation in the field of legal professional education. College provides exceptional individuals an environment to develop the skills and disciplines that best suits their professional aspirations and society quotes needs & requirement

In the modern era of globalization where professionalism is of utmost importance, knowledge of the law is now becoming a mandatory requirement to deal with the complexities of society and persons in every organization face greater challenges than ever before.

Paramount to the LL.B. Programme is the unique combination of theory and practice. Moot Courts are being organized and regularly conducted for enabling the students to get a good exposure of the working of Courts and manners observed therein, much emphasis has been laid to frequent visits to High Courts, Labour Courts/Tribunals, Consumer Forum, and Family Courts under the supervision of Advocates of standing.

“We are here to bring out the best in you. If you are also as committed to learn and develop, we ensure that a bright future is awaiting you!!”
